Builder's Row Registration Form

New Opportunity! We need Builder members to be involved!

New this year, busy builders can sign up for a Home Show Shift instead of participating in the full show. You can select a 4 hour shift or a full day. This set-up allows you to reduce both your financial and time commitments while still participating in the show. Attendees are always asking "Where are the Builders?" They want to ask questions, show plans ,make connections and start building relationships with builders. Sign up now to start building "Future Relationships".

You would arrive at the show and work out of a booth already set up with a drape covering & 2 chairs. No large displays are necessary for you to haul. Just bring your photos and /or paperwork!

4 hour shift is $145.00 1 full day is $285.00
